LIBRARY SCHOOL NOTES

PUBLISHED BY THE

LIBRARY SCHOOL OF THE NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

VOLUME 6 OCTOBER, 1918 NUMBER 1

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The school year of 1918–19 opened formally on Monday, September 23, the students who lacked library experience having been on the ground for the period of preliminary instruction and practical work for two weeks previous to that date. The advanced class assembled on Tuesday, October 1. Both groups of students are small this year, this being of course due to war conditions. The same influences which have drawn many workers from the library ranks of the nation have operated to reduce the number of those who plan to pursue library training.

The only faculty changes are the appointment of Edith W. Tiemann and Alice M. Dunlap as registrar and reviser, respectively, in place of Juliet A. Handerson and Ruth E. Warrick, resigned. The movements of former students to new positions have been very numerous. No attempt to list these will be made in this issue of Library School Notes, since the Annual Report, which is now in the printer's hands, is to contain a complete directory of former students, together with a special list of those who are or have been engaged in war service. This will be distributed to all who have been in attendance at the School.

The monthly "Twelfth-Night" gatherings will be continued for the coming year, the October and May meetings being scheduled to be held at Miss Sutliff's rooms, and all others at the School unless otherwise announced. Alumni who are located in and near New York are urged to be present at these occasions when possible.

The School will appreciate it if former students will take pains to report to it all happenings of general interest relating to themselves. Information as to marriages and changes of position is particularly desired for entrance in the records.
